To whom it may concern.

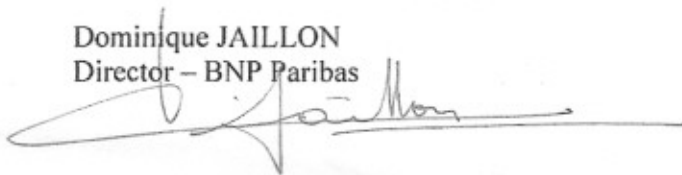

When we arrived in Singapore in August 2006, we contacted BKW, a bank pre-selected car renter, and they had the car we were looking for (MPV).

During our three year stay in Singapore, we have been very happy with the services rendered by BKW, their flexibility, their understanding and their efficiency, always trying their best efforts to find a solution, to assist in case of small accidents (which sometimes happen...) and to make all their possible to satisfy their clients.

Provided they maintain this quality of services, I would certainly recommend BKW renting a car in Singapore.
